

CHAPTER 514.

An act granting to the regents of the University of California for the use of the University of California in connection with scientific research and investigation at the Scripps Institution of Oceanography the sole and exclusive right of possession, occupation, and use of certain lands bordering on the Pacific ocean in the county of San Diego, State of California, and state waters adjacent thereto, forbidding entry upon said lands and state waters of any persons other than officers, employees, students of the University of California, and licensees of the regents of the University of California, making every violation of certain provisions of this act a misdemeanor, and providing for the punishment thereof.

[Approved by the Governor May 27, 1929 In effect August 14, 1929]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Grant to regents of University of California.

Description, lands granted.

Restricted
use.

SECTION 1. There is hereby granted to the regents of the University of California for the uses and purposes of the University of California in connection with scientific research and investigation at the Scripps Institution of Oceanography at La Jolla, San Diego county, State of California, the sole and exclusive right of possession, occupation, and use of the following described lands bordering on the Pacific ocean in the county of San Diego, State of California, and state waters adjacent thereto, to wit: That certain strip of land lying between the westerly edge of pueblo lot number 1298 of the pueblo lands of the city of San Diego, according to the official map of said pueblo lands, as made by James Pascoe, and filed in the office of the county recorder of said county of San Diego, and the lowest tide line opposite to and west of said pueblo lot, which said strip of land is bounded on the north by the northerly boundary line of said pueblo lot extended westerly and on the south by the southerly line of said pueblo lot extended westerly; together with state waters of the State of California adjacent thereto, being those state waters which lie between said extended northerly and southerly boundaries of said pueblo lot and extend westerly from said lowest low tide line for a distance of one thousand feet.

SEC. 2. Every person other than an officer, employee or student of the University of California, or licensee of the regents of the University of California, is forbidden to enter upon the said lands, or said adjacent state waters, or in any manner whatsoever to trespass upon the same, or to interfere with the exclusive possession, occupation, and use thereof by this act granted to the said regents of the University of California; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to affect in any manner the rights of navigation and fishery reserved to the people by the constitution of the State of California.

Rights reserved.

SEC. 3. Every person who shall violate any of the provisions of section 2 of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than three hundred dollars ($300) or by imprisonment for not more than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Offense and penalty.
